

CURRICULUM VITAE

Elisabeth (Beth) Gaines, MHS, PA-C
bgaines@berry.edu

Educational Background

- Doctor of Medical Science Medical Education Concentration-in process, anticipated degree December 2024, University of Lynchburg, Lynchburg, VA. Research: Risk of Anaphylaxis in Oncologic and Hematologic Drugs Due to Polysorbate 80, Polyethylene Glycol, and Polyoxyl Castor Oil Containing Substances: A Case Study
- Master of Health Science in Physician Assistant Studies, University of South Alabama, Mobile, AL.
- Bachelor of Science in Biology Berry College, Mt. Berry, GA

Professional Experience

2023-present:	Clinical Assistant Professor, Director of Clinical Education, MMS-PA Program, Berry College, Rome, GA
2013 – present	Oncology/Hematology Physician Assistant, Georgia Cancer Specialists/Northside Hospital Cancer Institute, Atlanta, GA
2011- 2012	Asthma and Allergy Physician Assistant, Center for Asthma and Allergy, Villa Rica, GA
2010- 2013	Family Medicine Physician Assistant, Lifetime Family Medicine, Dallas, GA and Total Care Family Medicine, Douglasville, GA
2002 – 2007	Pediatric Physician Assistant, Children’s Healthcare of West Georgia, Carrollton, GA and Scottish Rite Children’s Medical Center, Atlanta, GA
2002 – 2005	Adjunct Assistant Professor, University of South Alabama, Mobile, AL
1999 – 2001	Instructor and Clinical Coordinator, University of South Alabama, Mobile, AL
1994 – 1997	Nationally Certified EMT-Advanced, Medwings Ambulance Service, Parkway Medical Center, and Scottish Rite Children’s Medical Center

Professional Memberships

- American Academy of Physician Assistants
- PA Education Association
- Georgia Association of Physician Assistants
- Advanced Practitioner Society for Hematology and Oncology

Community Service

- Children’s and Youth Ministry volunteer, First UMC- Mobile, Faith UMC- Smyrna, Covenant Church -Smyrna
- Leadership Council Member, Covenant Church- Smyrna